Dear Friends:

Thank you for your invitation to join you tonight for the India Chamber of Commerce Global Trade Summit 2011. While my Senate schedule prevents me from joining you in person today, I appreciate this opportunity to congratulate you on organizing this successful event.

As global trade becomes the standard in the modern economy, Minnesotan and American companies are learning that we have a lot to gain from the growing economy of India. The India Chamber of Commerce has been and will continue to be invaluable in establishing and growing our business relationships in India. The work that you do is truly beneficial to both Minnesota and the United States, and we are proud to have you based here in Minnesota.

As chair of the Senate Commerce Subcommittee on Competitiveness, Innovation, and Export Promotion, I am always looking for ways to increase export opportunities for American companies, particularly in growing markets like India. Organizations like the India Chamber are critical to this effort.

Thank you once again for you invitation to today's summit.

Sincerely,

Amy Klobuchar
